DHIS STUDENT CREATES LIBRARY AT HOME

Warda Koppan, a Grade 11 student at DHIS, has transformed a corner of her home into a mini library, filled with over 400 books of various genres. Warda's passion for reading began at a young age and has led her to become a strong advocate for literacy and education. Her library has become a popular destination for her friends and classmates who come to borrow books or study in the cozy space she has created. Warda's dedication to promoting reading is inspiring others to discover the joy of reading, and she also volunteers at local libraries and book drives. DHIS is proud of Warda's commitment to education and congratulates her on this wonderful initiative that is making a positive impact on the community.
